County Youth Government Day will be on 09 MAR. Students from all Walworth County High Schools participate in a program that informs them on the functions of County government. They also get to observe courtroom proceedings. There is still an opening for 1 or 2 more volunteers from the Post to help with this event. We will meet at the new Judicial Center at 1800 CTY TK NN Elkhorn, at 0830 and should be done around 1:30. For more information, please call Bob Miller at 262-279-6429

IMPROVEMENTS AT THE POST

Soon the bar at Post 24 will have a new look. Post member Ken Lindberg has been using his newly acquired free time to construct a new section for the bar. This will replace the two makeshift counters currently serving at the north end (?) of the bar.

(exclusive sneak peek picture)

Perhaps a grand re-opening is in order for next month ???

By the way, the Post is open Friday nights from 4:30p until closing. Come on down and see your fellow legionnaires.

Happy Birthday to the American Legion

The American Legion was formed in 1919 by a group of twenty officers who had served in France with the American Expeditionary Forces (A.E.F.) The first organizational meeting took place in March 1919 in Paris. The first Post was chartered on May 19, 1919 and was named “George Washington Post 1 in Washington D.C. Today there are over 14000 posts with nearly 3 million members.

Can you name the 4 Departments that are outside of the Continental United States ?

Answers will be in the APR Stacked Arms

Come by Lake Geneva Lanes on Wednesday nights at 7:30p to see the Post 24 bowling
